

Parryware turns bathroom spaces into art galleries with its new collection: Artitude

CHANDIGARH. For individuals who seek retreat, draw inspiration from art and enjoy relaxing in their bathroom spaces, Parryware's latest offering caters to the dynamic urban lifestyle in India. Empowering innovative design concepts in bathroom spaces, India's contemporary bathroom solutions brand, Parryware launches its new artistically designed collection – Artitude. Fitting all bathroom spaces, the latest Artitude collection comprises of 'Night Life Series', 'Swish Series' and 'Ovo Series'. Giving bathrooms an artistic touch, the Swish series collection is designed in a unique spiral structure, extracted from a fine combination of Quartz and Feldspar. The unique design of the Swish series sets it apart from the competition. The Night Life series comprises of matt polished black collection giving a bold yet dramatic bathroom statement. The Ovo series takes design to the next level by featuring a contemporary oval shape which has subtle lines and soft contours. The Artitude collection not just comprises of bold and artistically crafted designs but also introduces its new electronic range with innovative features such as an automatic soap dispenser faucet and a fully electronic WC.
